

Steven E. Zekoff
Project Director
2008 Flood Recovery Program

Pastor Steven Zekoff, Project Director for the 2008 Flood Recovery Program, has more than 30 years of ministerial and executive managerial experience. Most recently, Zekoff served as the Executive Pastor at the United Methodist Church of Whitefish Bay, WI (2006-2009). Previously, Zekoff was the Assistant General Secretary, Communications, for the General Council on Finance and Administration of The United Methodist Church (1996-2006).

From 1989 to 1996, Zekoff was an associate outreach specialist at UW-Madison, a Program and Planning Analyst for the Division of Health-Wisconsin Department of Health and Social Services, and then served as Associate Risk Manager for the General Council on Finance and Administration of The United Methodist Church.

From 1979 to 1989, Zekoff was the Director of Camping then an Associate Council Director for the Wisconsin Conference of The United Methodist Church. Previously, he was an associate pastor in Perry, Iowa and manager of Lake Okoboji Camp for the Iowa Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Some of his additional voluntary responsibilities have included:

- President of the Wisconsin Conference Board of Trustees (2007-present)
- Wisconsin Conference Statistician, 2004-2007
- Chair of the Wisconsin Conference Rules Committee from 1996-2004
- Chair of the Wisconsin Conference Petitions Committee 1992 & 1996
- Delegate to the North Central Jurisdictional Conference 2004 & 2008
- Secretary's staff, 2008 General Conference
- Dean of the Stafford Chapel, Evanston United Methodist Agencies 1997-2004

Pastor Zekoff lives in Lake Mills. His wife, Jane Follmer Zekoff, is also United Methodist clergy, currently serving as pastor of the London Moravian Church in rural Cambridge. They are parents of an adult daughter.